Leadership Morgan Hill Opens Applications for Class of 2017

Leadership Morgan Hill is now accepting applications for its nine-month leadership training and development program dedicated to inspiring future leaders to community service. The Class of 2017 starts in January. A public information session for anyone interested will be held at 5:30 p.m., Thursday, September 29, 2016.

The program is seeking individuals living or working in the Morgan Hill area who are planning to contribute their skills, knowledge and expertise for the betterment of the community. Details and application are online at www.leadershipmorganhill.org.

In addition to briefings, field trips and classes to understand every aspect of our region, each class is expected to complete a community project. The 2016 class project was the creation "Community Oasis" at the Lorita Bonfante Education Center, where Central High School is housed.

Leadership Morgan Hill is a training and development program created to inspire future leaders to community service. The local program, founded in 1995, is similar in concept to leadership programs in place in many other California communities. The nine-month leadership program is designed to provide participants with in-depth knowledge of the local community, including government, schools, history, public safety, social services, and the economy, in a program centered around leadership development.
